Orlando Area: July 30/31 2011
Casselberry Art House
127 Quail Pond Circle, Casselberry

Join Michael A. Velasquez, Outreach facilitator for The Monroe Institute, for these two-day workshops that guide you through a carefully sequenced series of exercises to teach you how to comfortably shift and expand your awareness to inner realms of consciousness that is usually only accessible after years of meditation training and practice.

You'll use The Monroe Institute's Hemi-Sync® system to learn how to rapidly achieve, hold, and control different states of awareness so you can access your untapped inner resources and apply them to a variety of area of your life.
